Ken's Comments

I want to remind everyone that our Annual Singing is Friday night, March 28 at 7:00 p.m. This is obviously a very special time each year. Your life will be greatly blessed by attending.

We really had an excellent crowd and great worship service Sunday morning. It was nice to get to meet Hunter King's parents from Louisville. Hunter is a fine young man and as you know Hunter and Laura Beth are getting married March 22.

Our ladies had another great breakfast and Devo at Backroads Tuesday. There is always a good crowd and a lot of fun together. If you can, get involved in this good activity.

Our students and teachers will be enjoying Spring Break in just a few days. Be safe whatever you do and wherever you go. I am very proud of our students and teachers. God bless you for your good influence and example.

Ten acts of kindness:

- 1. Do something anonymous.
- 2. Buy a meal for someone.
- 3. Give something you don't use to someone who needs it.
- 4. Buy two, give one away.
- 5. Notice someone and encourage them.
- 6. Use your words to bless.
- 7. Pray for others.
- 8. Open a door for others.
- 9. Express your appreciation.
- 10. Look for ways to help older people.

Sunday's sermon is part two of last Sunday's lesson on "The Example of Christ." Obviously, Christ is our perfect example in all things. This will be another wonderful study.

Always remember how much Hannah and I love and appreciate you!
